QUAPAW NEWS.

There is still a scarcity of cars for hay shipments.

Little Lizzie Bingham has been ill for several days.

Prof. Shields has moved his healing factory to Miami.

Sore throats and bad colds are all the rage here at present.

Some meadows in this vicinity have been burned off already.

Clarence has finally made a mash. Jack Kincaid says the kid has beat his time.

N. D. Hardman, our good looking station agent, has bought a residence property here.

W. R. Bingham & Co. shipped a car load of shelled corn to Springfield, Mo., a few days ago.

W. R. Harbour and son shipped a car of fat cattle and hogs to Kansas City last Sunday evening.

Newt Edgington was in Scammon Friday getting his son, Charlie, established in the feed business.

Oh, yes, Clarence is still here, but he has not done anything worth mentioning for the last week or two.

Both of the corn mills at this place are running these days. It is no trouble to dispose of the output.

From the way corn is coming in to this place, we are led to believe that there won't be much corn left in the country.

Corn is moving pretty lively these days. From 1200 to 1500 bushels are being bought here every day by W. R. Bingham & Co.

There was a dance down here on Thanksgiving night and several little difficulties occurred. No casualties resulted, however.

We wonder why Clarence, when he goes after his girl for the dance, takes her older sister along. But, then, he is young, and we guess he is afraid.

A lodge of Knights and Ladies of Security was organized here on Saturday evening, Nov. 21. Newt Edgington was chosen president and Miss Myrtle Bingham secretary.

We wonder when Walter will return, as one of his lady friends was in town the other day and said she did not enjoy coming since Walter Apple left. Will tell names when he returns.

A. W. Price and wife arrived in Quapaw Sunday evening from a trip to Utah, California, Oregon and Washington. They report a pleasant trip, but were glad to get back to the big I. T.

R. N. Edgington and his son, Charlie have opened a feed store at Scammon, Kas. They will get their chopped feed from the wide awake Bingham & Rummel Mill and Elevator Co., Quapaw, I. T.

Some miscreant appropriated the celluloid rings from Wesley's buggy harness. He says if he had a family and was to buy a couple of soft, white rubber rings that there are people here mean enough to steal them.

E. C. Triplett, District Deputy of K. & L. of S., organized a council in Quapaw, Nov. 21 with a good attendance of charter members. The council will meet each Saturday night. Visiting members are cordially invited to come and help with the work, as we are all new in the cause.

Jack Kincaid will leave for Iowa

Kas., this week. He will be missed by two people here at least—missed financially for the hire of horse and buggy on Sunday evenings by W. I. Bingham, and also by Louis Anderson on Monday mornings by finding his front yard gate on its hinges.

Hotel John reports a strange quadruped in town last Sunday. He said he could not give an accurate description of it, but thinks it resembles a cross between a white sheet stretched over a pair of Arkansas quilting frames with a leg under each of the four corners, and the well known animal, the horse, but Riley says it is his buggy mare and she is related to Dan Patch and can make a mile in an hour and 40.

It was a close race between Whiskers and the snow storm last Monday evening, as to which should reach Quapaw first, but we think Whiskers gained the decision, as there was only a few snowflakes on the rear end of his buggy when he pulled up in front of the hardware store. After a few demonstrations, as if he had absorbed some of the strength of his neighbor's corn field, he departed for his home in Happy Hollow.

Nov. 27, 1903, which is just after the ball given by Mr. Hardman on Thanksgiving night at his home in Quapaw, where the merry dancers enjoyed themselves till 11 p. m., when they retired for supper to Hotel John's where were found the tables loaded with all the good eatables that a hungry human could desire. But one act met on the program occurred to mar the enjoyment of those present and that was cut short by Marshal Merries with his gun which looked to be as long as a piece of stovepipe, with a hole in the muzzle about the same size. Queer that a nice young man would let the fluid extract of something wrong cause him to start a fight in the room among the ladies. W. R. says Hotel John disappeared during the fight and he saw him coming in after breakfast next morning from Price & Harbour's hay barn. Anyway, he had hay in his collar and looked like he had run into it head foremost.

SAY! DO YOU WASH?

If not you ought to. "Cut out" that old wash tub racket and go to J. L. Hartley's Elite barber shop, where you will find nice clean bath rooms and bath tubs big enough to splash round in. Try a bath and see if you don't feel better.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

Major Vincent Phelps, aged eighty-seven years, three months and twenty-nine days, died Monday morning, Nov. 30, at about 1 o'clock at his home on East Murray street, after a long illness.

Deceased was an old resident of this county, living for a number of years on a farm northwest of this city. He was successful as a farmer, and when he felt that he was getting too old to look after his farm he sold it and moved to town.

Major Phelps was a good citizen, always dealt fairly with his fellow-man, and had the confidence and respect of all with whom he came in contact. He was a man about whom it could be truthfully said "his word was as good as his bond."

Funeral services were held Tuesday, conducted by the Masonic lodges of the city, of which deceased was a member, after which the remains were interred in the Baxter cemetery.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter I was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney trouble and General Debility." This is what B. F. Baes, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at A. R. Kane's Druggist.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

[From the Atchison, Kas. Globe.]
This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. R. Kane.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by A. R. Kane.
